CLASSIC COCKTAILS + RIFFS

For our current menu, we have decided to return to the classics, made well, along with some modern classics and variations thereof. Why? Because it's like a greeting from an old friend. There is also a case to be made that many newer drinkers are not familiar with the classics, so we thought we would introduce them.

A classic is a classic for a reason; it stands the test of time. With a few new iterations along the way, we have pulled together some of our favourites and some of yours, using our methodology to create what we believe are excellent versions.

Classics can also be upgraded. For example, with an Old Fashioned, maybe choose a whiskey that you have been eyeing or are curious about. Most spirits can be swapped out in drinks, provided they are not batched. So, if you want rum instead of gin, just ask us; we will guide you if it works.

So enjoy our menu, feel free to ask questions, try new things, or stick with what you love.
